Miss Lucy Russell has gone to Salt Lake to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

The PEOA primary association gave an entertainment on Saturday evening in honor of the one hundred birthday of the Prophet Joseph Smith. Among the most pleasing features was the address on the boyhood life of Joseph Smith, by Miss Ruby Marchant, an essay on the life of Joseph Smith, by Mrs. Tracy Barnum, a song by a number of little girls dressed in white and lead by Mary Larrabee, aged six years; a tableau by nine girls, all dressed in white flowing robes, who in closing the tableau knelt and sang "Joseph Smith's First Prayer" the gestures and singing brought tears to at least one who had known and loved the prophet.

The pupils who are attending school in Salt Lake and Provo are home for the holidays.

J. A. Marchant has had a maple box put down in his hall and furnished with a new piano all of which has been a great improvement. The gentleman gave a dance on Christmas night. The dance was a success and the music first-class.
